vse_studyabroad Lukáš says that Porto is a beautiful city and the whole Portugal 🇵🇹 is a great country that offers countless experiences. 🥰 He recommends everyone to go on Erasmus, because it's a lifelong experience. 🙌 And we couldn't agree more. 🥰 Let's read more about semester in Porto on the web ozs.vse.cz (link in bio), because also Veronika Klánová (FFU) @veru.kl is sharing her story there. 😊

Hong Kong, China

vse_studyabroad @simonslaninka1 spent one semester in Hong Kong at The Hong Kong Polytechnic University & he shared with us the 3 best and worst experiences about his exchange! HK

- 🌟City: Hong Kong offer one of the best skyline view in the world and its truly amazing. The architecture is also so unique you will find yourself just wondering around the streets.👉
- 🌟Nature: Lot of people don't know that but Hong Kong is 70% made up from nature.👉 That means you can take 30 minutes ride from city center and find yourself on the beach or hiking the mountains with the monkeys.👉
- 🌟Opportunities to travel: Unfortunately this wasnt case for me as there were still some restrictions👉 but otherwise you got unlimited and cheap opportunities to travel around Asia.

- ✂️Prices: Hong Kong can get really pricey, especially with accommodation but PolyU and other universities offer dorms which are definitely a good option if you don't want pay for overpriced small apartments.👉
- ✂️Cultural barrier: It was really hard to infiltrate to local culture as locals usually don't hang out with foreigners and then it is easy to miss some cultural aspects of staying abroad so try to engage with locals as much you can even though it is hard.👉
- ✂️Gym requirements: Before using the gym, every student needs to obtain some special certificate which doesn't really make sense if you already did some sports before. But the worst part is that it is almost imposible to get in the course where you can obtain this certificate. If you dont get in, you need to come like 1-2 hours before the class and hope someone who enrolled in course will not come.👉
